St. James's, April 9.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, convened this 31ſt of January, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Inhabitants of this remote Part of your Dominions in America, being now aſſembled, pray Leave to approach your moſt Sacred Perſon, and with Hearts truly and ſincerely ſorrowful, to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious King.

As the ſudden Loſs of ſo great and good a Prince muſt naturally affect his People with the deepeſt Sorrow, ſo by your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Britiſh Throne, that Scene of Melancholly is changed to the greateſt tranſport of Joy. On which happy Occaſion permit us, dread Sir, among the loud Acclamations of your many dutiful and loyal Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty, and with the ſame univerſal Joy to offer your Majeſty this firſt Tribute of our Duty, Loyalty and Obedience: And although we are ſo unhappy to be at this great Diſtance from your Royal Preſence and immediate Care and Protection, and the Province to which we belong may be thought inconſiderable, if compared with your other Dominions; yet we aſſure your Majeſty, that our Zeal and Affection to your Perſon and Government is no ways inferior to any of the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long, glorious and happy; that God will multiply His Bleſſings on your moſt Sacred Majeſty and your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, and the reſt of your illuſtrious Family; and that there may never be wanting one of them to rule Great Britain and the Dominions thereunto belonging, is, and ever ſhall be, the conſtant Prayers of,

Great Sir,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

Whitehall, April 9.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order Letters Patent to paſs the Great Seal, for renewing and confirming the Eſtabliſhment of a Profeſſorſhip of Modern Hiſtory in each of the Univerſities of Cambridge and Oxford, and for the inſtructing of Twenty Scholars in each of thoſe Univerſities in Modern Hiſtory and Modern Languages.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to nominate and appoint the Reverend Mr. Samuel Harris to continue Profeſſor of Modern Hiſtory in the Univerſity of Cambridge.

Navy Office, April 3, 1728.

Whereas a Letter dated the 26th of laſt Month, ſigned F. G. was ſent by the Poſt to the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Torrington, complaining of Irregularities in the Payment of ſome of the Men that did belong to one of His Majeſty's Ships lately paid off at Portſmouth: Theſe are to give Notice to the ſaid F. G. that if he will attend the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, at their Office in London, and make out what he has ſet forth, or if he will further explain himſelf by Letter, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

Navy Office, April 3, 1728,

Whereas ſeveral Seamen lately belonging to His Majeſty's Ship the Ludlow Caſtle, laid up and paid off at Woollwich, did, during the ſaid Ship's Continuance at Boſton in New England, abſent themſelves from her, for which abſent Time or Times they have been chequed out of Wages and Victuals: Theſe are to give Notice, that if any of the ſaid Seamen will attend the Navy Board, they ſhall be heard as to the Reaſons they may have to give for abſenting themſelves from their Duty, and what elſe they can offer in their Juſtification.
